Divine Mercy Novena: On Good Friday we will begin the novena to the Divine Mercy. Each day there is a prayer followed by the chaplet of Divine Mercy. This devotion is an extraordinary gift in our times. If we fulfil the conditions for Divine Mercy Sunday (the Sunday after Easter Sunday) then we can receive the amazing grace of our souls being cleansed of all sin and being like a newly baptised infant.

The conditions for receiving this grace are:

1. Going to confession in the days before and confessing all our sins
2. Receiving Holy Communion on Divine Mercy Sunday in the state of grace
3. Venerating the image of the Divine Mercy (can be done in the Church or at home)

I pray that we can all avail of this amazing grace

Sick and Housebound Visits (Monday 25th March): Gortin – Morning - Fr. Donnelly
Greencastle - 11.00am - Fr. Devine | Rouskey - 2.00pm - Fr. Devine

Death: We extend sympathy to the families and friends of Colette Laird (Pomeroy) who died recently. She was a sister of Mickey Beggs.
